

YOU'RE NOT THERE

E

A

Thought you'd be the one to save me

E

Don't you see I'm hangin' in the air?

A

I've forgotten nothin' that you gave me

B

A

E

But when I look, you're not there

And lose the dreams that are in sight

A

I hear the music I can't listen to

A

I am caught between two worlds

E

Neither one feels like home

E

I see the eyes that only stare

A

I see the faces I can't speak to

B

A

A

Haven't felt home in a long time

B

A

E

Except the few times we're alone

E

But when I look, you're not there

A

E

Yeah. when I look, you're not there

Must I prove how much I need you?

Must I prolong this despair?

Too many people I can see through

But when I look, you're not there

© Peter Stone Brown

August 18, 1989

I'm no stranger to strange places
Know all the creatures of the night
I could drift off in this sea of faces